

MARTINOT

ABOGADOS

Luis Americo Mendoza Palomino is a lawyer with a summa cum laude mention from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú - PUCP.

He has extensive experience in tax and customs consulting, tax procedures and processes, tax planning, tax due diligence, and compliance with formal and substantial tax obligations of companies and individuals.

His professional experience focuses on advising companies in the fulfillment of their tax and customs obligations, belonging mainly to the following sectors: casinos and slot machines, hotels, real estate and construction, and foreign trade.

He has successfully advised natural persons regarding their income received from investments made in Peru and abroad (stock transactions, funds, real estate investment, etc.), taking care of the filing of tax returns.

He has been a member of the winning team of the Seventh and Eighth Tax Law Contest of the PUCP.

Luis speaks English and Spanish.