

MARTINOT

ABOGADOS

Piero Alejandro Aguado Iriarte, Lawyer from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú – PUCP, he has a specialization in hydrocarbons, energy and mining law from Osinergmin.

Piero has more than six years of professional experience in corporate, real estate, contractual, energy and registry matters.

He has worked in important law firms and business groups concentrating his professional practice on advising both national and foreign companies.

In addition, he has been an active part in the structuring and financing of companies as well as projects related to the real estate and manufacturing sectors. Likewise, he has experience in negotiation processes regarding the construction of real estate projects.

He speaks English and Spanish.