

MARTINOT

ABOGADOS

Adriana Cangalaya Ponce, graduated from the University of Lima, with a specialty in Corporate Law from the same university. He has studies at The London School of Economics and Political Science (United Kingdom) and at the Catholic University of Colombia (Colombia) focused on corporate finance, civil and commercial law, in addition, he has specialized courses in intellectual property from the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) y el Instituto Nacional de Propiedad Industrial (Chile).

Adriana has more than four years of experience in bankruptcy law, asset restructuring and liquidations.

She has participated in various restructuring and liquidation processes of companies in various sectors, from advising on the analysis of the legal framework and negotiating with creditors and debtors.

She is an Associate Member of the Advocatus Journal and an Honorary Member of the Intellectual Property Studies Group of the Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos.

Previously, she has worked as an intern and legal assistant in the Business Restructuring and Insolvency Area of a law firm in Lima.

She speaks Spanish, English and Italian.