

MARTINOT

ABOGADOS

Elizene Lida Vásquez de Velasco Ariza, Lawyer from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú, with specialization studies in Business Labor Law and Gender in Employment.

Elizene has more than ten years of experience providing support and legal advice to the Human Resources and Labor Relations areas of companies from different economic sectors (telecommunications, mining, ports, fishing, construction, agribusiness, airport, services, among others).

Her professional practice is focused on preventive advice and the design and implementation of work projects, as well as the delivery of workshops to raise awareness in the prevention of sexual harassment at work; equal pay; and, safety and health at work.

She also has extensive experience in the design of procedural strategies for the defense of highly complex labor disputes, support in the management of labor inspection procedures, advice on immigration matters and hiring foreign workers, and support in collective labor negotiations.

In addition, her work is recognized in Chambers and Partners and she participates as a speaker and panelist in various conversations on Gender in Employment and prevention of sexual harassment at work.

She is a member of the Lima Bar Association. She speaks Spanish and English.