

MARTINOT

ABOGADOS

Dalila Escate Donayre, lawyer degree from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú, and a Postgraduate Degree in Environmental Regulation and Management from the Universidad Peruana de Ciencias Aplicadas as well as a Master's Degree in Law (LLM) from the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile.

Dalila has more than ten years of practice advising multinational companies on corporate law and compliance, as well as regulatory law for companies in different economic sectors of the country, such as: mining, hydrocarbons, industry, and retail.

Her experience includes counselling on matters related to financing, mergers and acquisitions, legal due diligence as well as the negotiation and drafting of contracts at the regional level, implementation of corporate policies and good practices, ISOS and OSHAS certification processes and management in corporate governance for multinational companies in Chile and Peru.

Dalila has worked as an in-house counsel for companies such as GoldFields, AngloAmerican, Ferreycorp, as well as in Chile for the BBVA Group and Hanwha Q Cells company.

She is a member of the Lima Bar Association and is fluent in English, French, and Spanish.