

MARTINOT

ABOGADOS

Carlos Bossio is a lawyer from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú, holds a master's degree in Financial Management with a specialization in corporate finance from EAE Business School and Universidad Rey Juan Carlos.

Carlos has more than ten years of experience in the areas of corporate, financial, corporate restructuring and bankruptcy law.

He has participated in the planning and execution of various business reorganizations, as well as in purchase and sale transactions, financing, financial and business restructurings. He has also advised companies in financial distress in the negotiation with their creditors and restructuring of their assets and liabilities.

In addition, he has authored several publications in national magazines and newspapers.

He is a member of the Lima Bar Association and speaks English and Spanish.