

Carlos Aurelio Figueroa Iberico, Lawyer from the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Peru. Completed Master's Degree in Business Law from the same university.

Specialization in Administrative Law, State Contracting and Arbitration at the ESAN University, as well as in Construction Law at the UPC.

Experience in Public Procurement, Arbitrations with the State, Civil Law and Civil Procedure.

As Public Prosecutor of the Ministry of Development and Social Inclusion, he managed a high procedural load for more than 10 years, obtaining favorable results in more than 85 percent of arbitration cases (more than 350 awards). Recognized as a Highly Qualified Professional (FAC PAC) from May 2015 to December 2021.

He was Public Prosecutor of INPE, acting at the national level in numerous judicial and arbitration proceedings.

He has experience and knowledge at the national level as a trainer in various workshops aimed at lawyers, servants and officials, addressing issues of contractual execution with the State, arbitration and civil procedure.

He is a consultant on various regulations related to the legal defense of the State and has contributed as a teacher, lecturer and author of some publications on topics related to the legal defense of the State and arbitrations.

He has 24 years of work experience.

He speaks English (intermediate) and Spanish.